2. [REDACTED] I spoke with Ms. Goldman of Congresswoman Barbara Jordan's (D., Tex.) staff. I mentioned the letter we had received from [REDACTED] alleged the Agency was using her identity in some way. I said that the story was not true and we don't know what she is talking about. Ms. Goldman asked for a letter which I said I will send. See Congresswoman Jordan's file for copy of the letter.

3. [REDACTED] Called Neil Livingstone who is on the personal staff of Senator James Pearson (R., Kan.) and who had made a request to a personal friend of his in OPR, [REDACTED] concerning information on the Junta Democratics of Spain. I told Mr. Livingstone that the people who were on top of matters regarding this group were a Mr. Alan Lukens, Iberian Country Director, and Mike Durkee, Spain Desk Officer, in the Department of State. He said that he was meeting conflicting stories out of State and other information sources in Washington and that he had hoped that the Agency would give him an accurate picture, but that he knew Lukens and would try him. I told Mr. Livingstone that as I understood, Lukens knew substantially all there was to know about this group, but that if he was dissatisfied with Lukens response, he should feel free to call me and we would take it from there.
